- Gratitude to the frontline force in the fight against the pandemic via a loan package with favorable interest rates, allowing clients to conveniently access finance and achieve effective financial goals.
- Reaffirming Shinhan Bank's long-term partnership with customers

Ho Chi Minh City, 10 January 2022— Shinhan Bank Vietnam Limited ("Shinhan Bank") is continue to implement the program "Grateful for frontline workers" with a loan package at a preferential interest rate. Shinhan Bank has successfully conducted the initiative since the Q4 of 2021 as a way of expressing gratitude to the frontline workers.

Shinhan Bank will continue to implement this special program until the end of February 2022, expanding the scope of services to include medical staff, nurses, and officials, as well as staff working at health care organizations (public and private) or units managed by the Ministry and Department of Health; and lecturers in medical university. As a result, the "Gratitude to the Frontline Workers 2022" initiative provides a loan package with a fixed preferred interest rate of 9.9 % per year for a 5-year loan period. At the same time, the loan package provides a maximum loan limit of up to VND 900 million, allowing clients to be more flexible in implementing daily financial goals and resolving capital source problems.

Previously, Shinhan Bank announced attractive loan interest rates in home loan and car loan packages for individual customers in the Q4 of 2022. Shinhan Bank's long-term commitment to clients is expressed indirectly through practical and effective interest rate assistance programs, emphasizing the role of "customer's trusted financial partner".
