TOWARD THE CENTRAL, VIETNAM

Ho Chi Minh City, 05 November 2020 – Shinhan Bank Vietnam Limited (“Shinhan Bank”) joined with Quang Binh Radio and Television to have two relief visits to Le Thuy District and Quang Ninh District, Quang Binh Province, provided aids and donations to help the disaster victims overcome the havoc caused by the historical floods here. The total amount contributed by Shinhan Bank to this relief campaign was up to VND 528,535,332 thanks to the voluntary contribution of Shinhan Bank Vietnam’s members and meaningful internal activities to raise charity funds for the flood-victims in the Central, Vietnam.

My Thuy Commune, Le Thuy District, Quang Binh Province, where was hardest hit by the recent serious floods, was the first destination of Shinhan Bank in this relief journey on 4th November 2020. The “blue warriors” from Shinhan Bank had sent the encouragement and comfort as well as given aid gifts of necessities valued up to VND 700,000 each gift set, to 315 victim families. This event had the joining of Shinhan Bank’s Korean leaders that show the relief efforts are not only shared among Vietnamese but also from foreign friendships, all are sending their helps to Vietnam’s Central peoples. On this occasion, Shinhan Bank has granted scholarships of over VND 69,000,000 to 137 students in Lien Thuy High School, Lien Thuy Commune, Le Thuy District to facilitate them with studying and overcoming difficulties following natural disasters.

The journey continued with the next destination in An Ninh Commune, Quang Ninh District, Quang Binh Province to provide food and necessities to 630 victim families here.

Sharing about this journey towards the Central of Vietnam, Mr. Shin Dong Min – CEO of Shinhan Bank in Vietnam, said: “This is a meaningful journey, conveyed with the love and support from each Shinhan member toward the people of Central Vietnam. With this series of activities, Shinhan Bank wants to contribute its efforts together with the community to support the typhoon and flood-victims in Central Vietnam to overcome difficulties and stabilize their lives.”

Also, in early November 2020, through the Vietnam Children Fund, Shinhan Bank has donated necessities and notebooks to 200 students in Thua Thien Hue Province, with a total gift value of VND 100,000,000 and given blankets to 100 children in Quang Binh Province, with a total value of VND 50,000,000. These gifts presented strong support and enthusiasm from Shinhan Bank team with hope to empower children in the hardest hit areas by natural disasters to overcome difficulties and encourage their studying spirit.

With the guideline “Bring a better work through power of finance”, Shinhan Bank has been on the journey to spread the compassionate finance to underprivileged peoples and create good values to communities.
