Ho Chi Minh City, 29 July 2022, Shinhan Bank Vietnam Limited ("Shinhan Bank") officially announced the grand openings and put three new branches and transaction offices into operation, including the Hoang Mai Branch in Hanoi (on 28 July 2022), the Tan Phu Transaction Office, and the Phan Van Tri Transaction Office in Ho Chi Minh City (on 29 July 2022). Shinhan Bank now has 46 existing branches and transaction offices nationwide.

With the advantage of geographical location, Shinhan Bank's new branches and transaction offices create ideal conditions for customers in the area to have more options and access and use the Bank's comprehensive main and utility products and services.

Hai Ba Trung is one of the key and growing pole of Hanoi's capital, and it is regarded as a core urban region that is geared to expand in accordance with current smart urban planning connected with economic development. Meanwhile, along with infrastructure improvements and a high rate of urbanization, the two districts of Tan Phu and Go Vap have become Ho Chi Minh City's fastest growing areas.

Mr. Kang GewWon - Chief Executive Officer of Shinhan Bank Vietnam, shared: “As a foreign bank with a history of more than 29 years’ operating in the Vietnamese market, we maintain our commitment to strong connections with Vietnam, with customers, partners, community, and all employees. The opening of three new branches and transaction offices are part of Shinhan Bank's business promotion strategy for 2022, which aims to optimize its digital capabilities, combined with over-the-counter transactions, to provide customers with the best possible experience. Shinhan Bank's standard investment in the digital transformation journey through the use of advanced technologies in products, services, and processes aims at the goal of "friendly innovation" and is geared towards being the leading digital bank in Vietnam by 2030.”
