SHINHAN BANK LAUNCHES ĐỐNG ĐA BRANCH, EXPANDING ITS NETWORK TO 56 LOCATIONS NATIONWIDE

Ho Chi Minh City, 03rd November 2025 – Shinhan Bank Vietnam Ltd. ("Shinhan Bank") has launched its Đống Đa Branch at 1st Floor, No. 11A Cát Linh Street, Ô Chợ Dừa Ward, Hanoi, bringing the Bank's total number of branches and transaction offices to 56 nationwide.The opening of Đống Đa Branch is part of Shinhan Bank's selective network expansion strategy for 2025, aiming to enhance service quality and operational efficiency while offering customers a convenient and secure financial experience.

Ô Chợ Dừa Ward, formerly part of Đống Đa District, enjoys a prime central location surrounded by key arterial roads, providing easy access to major districts such as Ba Đình, Hoàn Kiếm, Hai Bà Trưng, Cầu Giấy, and Thanh Xuân. This advantageous location ensures strong transportation connectivity and proximity to Hanoi's administrative, cultural, and economic centers. Establishing a branch here enables Shinhan Bank to better reach individual and SME customers, while strengthening its relationships with organizations and partners in the heart of the capital.

Đống Đa Branch is not only a modern financial service point but also a comprehensive financial solutions center, offering a wide range of products and services including deposits, consumer and corporate loans, trade finance, foreign exchange, and advanced digital banking solutions. Its modern design prioritizes customer experience, featuring comfortable transaction spaces, professional consultants, and cutting-edge technology systems, ensuring fast, safe, and efficient service delivery.

A Shinhan Bank representative shared: "The inauguration of the Đống Đa Branch marks a significant milestone in Shinhan Bank's growth journey in Vietnam and reflects our strategic vision to expand our network in key economic areas. Hanoi and the northern region have always been regarded by Shinhan as strategic growth hubs, home to strong development potential from both business and retail customers.
