SPECIAL OFFERS FOR NEW SEMESTER FROM SHINHAN BANK FOR VIETNAMESE STUDENTS STUDYING ABROAD IN KOREA

Ho Chi Minh City, on 08nd July 2025 – Shinhan Bank Vietnam Limited ("Shinhan Bank") offers special incentives for Vietnamese students studying abroad in Korea in new semesters through global banking service of "KRW Tuition Fee Transfer" for universities in Korea and "Only Exchange Money" service on Shinhan SOL Vietnam ("SOL app") before departure to Korea.

With "KRW Tuition Fee Transfer" service, students are able to implement tuition fee payment transactions of nearly 200 universities in Korea quickly and totally free of charge when meeting the transaction conditions for each period. Transactions shall be implemented within 01 working day that helps students ensure tuition fee on time without visiting the bank. Implementation process is simple, requiring customers to provide passports and tuition notice provided by the university in Korea. This payment method not only saves costs, but also ensures safety and transparency for customers.

For more information about KRW Tuition Fee Transfer, kindly visit here.

Besides, students can register Online Exchange Money Service on SOL app. After completing registration, students will receive foreign currencies by cash at branches and transactions of Shinhan Bank previously registered by the customer on SOL app. This helps overseas students save their time and effort, be proactive in transaction time, as well as carefully prepare for the upcoming study abroad trip in Korea.

For detailed information about Online Exchange Transfer Service on SOL app, kindly refer here.

Moreover, to support overseas students in proving their financial capacity when applying for a student visa and to help them conveniently manage their study expenses in Korea, Shinhan Bank has specially designed the K-Study Account with a wide range of benefits. With the K-Study Account, students can easily obtain
